Did you hear about the immigrant applying for a driver's license at the DMV. To check his eyesight, the examiner shows him a card with the letters:

C Z J W X I N O S T C Z
 "Can you read this?" the examiner asks. "Read it?" the immigrant replies, "I know the guy!"

National Treasures visited last year. Statue of Liberty: 5,370,015 Grand Canyon: 4,575,124; Yellowstone Park: 3,131,381; Gettysburg: 1,641,128.

Joe Montana (The Comeback Kid) was arguably the most celebrated player in Notre Dame football history, yet he was neither an All-American nor a first-round draft choice. While in the NFL, he engineered 31 comebacks from fourth quarter deficits to win.

If the directions for finding a location include the words, "You can't miss it" - you probably will.

161 million Americans, nearly 60% of the population, depend on prescription eyewear. No surprise then, that the market for glasses was nearly $14 billion last year.

If you were in a vehicle going the speed of light, what would happen when you turn on the headlights?

If you look like your driver's license photo, then you're too sick to drive.

A Test! What single 4-letter word can be placed before each of the following words to make four new words?
 Trap • Place • Bug • Fly

Don't blow it in Japan. It is deemed disgusting to blow your nose in public. Also, cloth handkerchiefs are used only to dry hands and mop brows.

Do Roman paramedics refer to IV's as "4's"?

Judging by the way they dress, try to guess what strangers do for a living. Then ask yourself if your attire sends the right message about you.

"Worry gives small things to a big shadow." Swedish proverb

Why is it that rain drops but snow falls?

FALL is a good time to call us with your needs. We're ready to serve you.
